

What Families Have Said

I cannot say enough about The Gathering Together. What a true blessing. I am so thankful for a place that was a home away from home and so peaceful. Mom was very cared for and loved. Our family will always be thankful for the love and warm heart Rita poured out not only to my mom but to our whole family. -Michele Peyton

And can I say WOW! This Woman of Worth, Rita Fiorentino, transformed my life. She taught me how to lovingly care for my fragile mother and embrace those last precious moments.

I hold a great deal of love in my heart for The Gathering Together. You are all a God given gift to our community!

-Lee Alice Summers

The Gathering Together is a place where you feel God's presence and you take a peacefulness with you when you leave. I have thought about The Gathering Together and the people every day since Bea's passing and thank Rita and her volunteers for making what could have been a very difficult time much easier. -Aimee Webster

The Gathering Together is a non-profit charitable organization guided by a board of directors. We do not receive reimbursements from insurance companies, hospices or public funding.

A comfortable place for life's last moments.

Our founder, Rita Fiorentino

"We created a safe environment that is not a nursing home or an institution, where families can be together."

A Warm, Homelike Setting

The Gathering Together provides a comfortable home where people can spend their final days in dignity and peace, surrounded by loved ones.

Welcome To Our Home

Our rooms provide a soothing atmosphere that embraces loved ones in warmth and security, so their last days are wonderfully calm and pleasant. A guest bedroom and cozy chairs allow family and friends to linger.

Guests can enjoy each other's company in our community room, sleep peacefully in one of our guest rooms, and relax in contemplation and prayer in our gardens and quiet areas.

All Are Welcome

The Gathering Together accepts people of all ages, based on need, during the final weeks of life. Most are under the care of local hospices.

We Appreciate Your Support
